

TASKS

In 'The Twits' Roald Dahl tells us that a person who has good thoughts can never be ugly.

Choose the words to fill in the spaces:

good

ugly

double

stick-out

mouth

sunbeams

lovely

wonky

A person who has good thoughts can never be _____.

You can have a _____ nose and a crooked _____ and a _____ chin and _____ teeth, but if you have _____ thoughts they will shine out of your face like _____ and you will always look _____.

